A COZY DECEMBER DAY

December was here, and Mia was excited.
The weather was cold, and dark clouds filled the sky. Mia put on her warm sweater and fuzzy socks.

After breakfast, Mia looked outside. She saw tiny drops of rain falling on the window.
Instead of going outside, she decided to stay inside and have a cozy day.

Mia made a cup of warm cocoa. Then, she sat on the sofa and read her favorite book.
Her little brother, Sam, joined her. Together, they built a small blanket fort.

In the afternoon, Mia helped her mother bake cookies. The kitchen smelled sweet and warm.
When the cookies were ready, Mia and Sam enjoyed them with their cocoa.

At the end of the day, Mia looked out the window again.
The rain had stopped, and a bright star appeared in the evening sky.
Mia smiled and thought it was a wonderful December day.
